

The Spirit

Dedicated to the credit union movement

Expree Credit Union is dedicated to its members and “People helping people” philosophy. Under the leadership of John Graham, CEO/President of Expree Credit Union, the staff strives to provide hand-crafted solutions for all members. Graham was recently honored in Washington D.C., as an inductee into the Credit Union House Hall of Leaders, along with 12 other credit union champions, for their significant contributions to the credit union industry. This prestigious recognition honors professionals that have made a significant impact on the credit union movement.

uating the credit union mission and philosophy.

"The Credit Union House Hall of Leaders provides lasting recognition at the Capitol Hill facility for a distinguished group of people whose leadership serves as a model for credit union leaders throughout the country," said Brett Thompson, Credit Union House chair and president/CEO of the Wisconsin Credit Union League. "Their names remind Credit Union House visitors, including prominent elected officials, of the strong commitment to the values on which the credit union movement was founded." Graham has been President/CEO of Expree for more than 30 years. As part of his dedication and commitment to the credit union movement, he has served on the CUNA Board (2005-2016), Corporate One FCU Board (since 2017), and Kentucky Credit Union League Board (1993-2017), to name a few.

In addition to his success within the credit union industry, Graham has strived to bring the mission of the credit union into his community-work within Franklin County and surrounding areas. He serves on the Board for Frankfort Area Chamber of Commerce, numerous committees, as well as current chair-elect. Graham leads by example and strives to ensure the credit union and its employees represent the mission to members and being a partner within the community. His passion for helping people and delivering hand-crafted solutions among members, staff and the community exemplifies the mission of credit unions everywhere. ●

Hey High School Seniors! Scholarship applications due April 15, 2022

Expree Credit Union is currently accepting applications for our second annual scholarship recipient.

Expree is built on delivering hand-crafted solutions for everyone's financial needs. As part of that mission, we believe access to education should be available to those wanting to attend an accredited university, college or trade school.

Expree will award one student up to $2500 to help finance this pursuit of higher education. Anyone interested in applying for the Expree Credit Union scholarship must submit the application and required documents no later than April 15, 2022.

The scholarship is open to any high school senior in Franklin County with a GPA of 2.7 or above. The scholarship is not available to family of staff or volunteers at Expree.

An impartial committee comprised of Expree volunteers and employees will select the recipient. The scholarship will be awarded in $500 increments over the course of the student's

Expree invests in education

Expree Credit Union is the proud sponsor of The Frankfort Area Chamber of Commerce's Reality Check. Reality Check is exactly that — a reality check for seventh-graders in Franklin County. Students choose an occupation, earn a salary and travel from booth to booth selecting a house and vehicle, paying utility bills and even unexpected expenses. Expree staff assisted more than 600 students in the event on March 24, 2022.

Expree engages in community spirit

On Feb. 4, 2022, Expree Credit Union employees participated in the American Heart Association Wear Red Day to raise awareness about heart disease.

On March 3, 2022, Andrea Giusti, Chief Marketing Officer and Brittany Thurman, Human Resource Generalist attended Frankfort Area Chamber of Commerce Women In Networking (WIN) event, providing a unique door prize for the drawing.

On March 19, 2022, Loan Officer, Todd Jennings and his wife, Cathy participated in the "Run for the Gold" event. This event supports Good Shepherds arts programs. Expree Credit Union is proud to be a sponsor.

Place your bets on the student art show

Stop by the branch to place your "bets" and vote for your favorite student artists.

Jane Chancellor Moore Gallery features approximately 30 pieces in "Art In The Winner's Circle XVII" March 23-May 7, 2022. The exhibit is a selection of works from the Kentucky Derby Museum 2022 Student Art Show "Horsing Around with Art." Members can come by the branch gallery and place your "bet" on your 3 favorite student artists. "Win" bets receive 3 points, "Place" bets receive 2 points and "Show" bets receive 1 point for the artist. Expree Credit Union will award $100 to the student artist receiving the most points and $100 to the art teacher of the winning artists.
